

Check out our interactive gallery, kiwi house with film theatre, bush lookout walk and on-site café.

The loop walk takes two hours, please allow plenty of time to get back before closing time.

Thank you for visiting. Your admission charges go directly to conservation programmes being run here at Pūkaha.

Identify some of our commonly seen creatures in the wild!

What goes on behind the scenes?

Pūkaha is an important player in a number of breeding programmes for critically endangered birds. Not all of these birds can be on display to the public.

Behinds the scenes tours are a great way to learn more about these programmes and you may even get to see some of the rarest birds in New Zealand.

Get involved!

We have multiple ways in which you can be a part of Pūkaha's conservation project:

- Make a donation
- Become a member
- Adopt a hectare
- Make a bequest in your will

The shore plover is one of the rarest plover species in the world and they are ranked "Nationally Critical" in New Zealand. The first captive pairs were formed here at Pūkaha in 1992 and we have been part of their very important breeding program ever since.
