Connect, protect and restore.

Join the Pūkaha whānau and be part of the success of this iconic conservation project in the Wairarapa and Tararua regions.

From Manukura the white kiwi to the cheeky kākā, from streams and waterways to bush and forest, from the earth to the skies... Pūkaha's commitment to environmental restoration is steadfast.

We believe in rongo te mauri - feeling life's essence. A visit at Pūkaha enriches your own spiritual essence and allows you to share in that of other life forms.

We are all kaitiaki (guardians/caregivers) of the forest. Connect, breathe, listen, and learn... help Pūkaha to safeguard the natural environment for the future.
